A BANK STORY

Smith owed Skinner & Co $500. He went in one day and handed them $5.00 in cash. Skinner forgot to take it off his books, and the next month presented the same bill. He thought he had paid it, but, having no proof, SMITH PAID TWICE

Jones owed Skinner & Co. $5,00. He went in one day and handed them a check on this bank for $5 00. Skinner forgot to take it off his books but the next month when the bill was presented to him, Jones balked. He said: "See here, Mr. Skinner, I paid that bill last month and here is the check which the bank has returned to me, with your name endorsed on the back, showing that you got the money." JONES PAID ONCE

This illustrates only one of the advantages of a bank account

SCHOOL NOTES

Attendance not good.

Junior class play Feb. 20. Mrs. Verba Pope visited the second primary room Tuesday.

A great many pupils are out of school on account of measles but so far as reported all are getting along reasonably well.

Mr. Barlow visited school Monday forenoon. He talked to the pupils in the lower grades all of whom were assembled in the primary room. His visit and remarks in the other rooms were appreciated.

Some excellent points on the herein by her attorney of record, value of character were brought er things, that Defendant, Jesse E. Lee did more for our country decision was for the affirmative.
